A ROAD PROPOSED

Hervey City and Southern Electric Railway Co. is Incorporated

AND MAY PERHAPS BE BUILT

The Farmers Along the Route Are Expected to Be Much Interested and to Take Stock.

DEAL HINDS ON THAT CONTINGENCY

The secretary of state Thursday licensed the incorporation of the Hervey City and Northern Electric railway company. The company purposed the construction of an electric road from Hervey City to Shelby-ville. The capital stock of the corporation is to be $150,000. The principal office of the road is to be located at Macen.
The incorporators and members of the first board of directors are: J. Smith Button, Decatur; Robert R. Hornig, Prairie Home; Robert H. Woodward, Harold R. Woodcock and John M. Turner, of Macen.

The distance from Hervey City to Shelby-ville is thirty-two miles. The intention of the promoters is to construct the line along the public highways. While the capital stock is $150,000 the expectation is that the cost of such a line as is proposed would be perhaps twice that sum of money. The promoters prefer to believe that it will be possible to roll the total cost of construction in stock and do not entertain the idea that a bond issue will be necessary. They are confident that they can readily dispose of the stock in a sufficient amount to pay the construction cost.

The building of the road depends entirely upon the support the plan receives from the land owners along the route proposed. If the farmers see it in the light so clear to the promoters there will be no trouble in making it a go. The promoters believe that the advantages according to the amounting land are so great that none will fail to see it that way. The intention is to have a road of standard gauge and of such construction that it will accommodate regular cars from storm roads. At Hervey City the proposed line would connect with the P. D. & E. and the Vandalia line and at Shelbyville it would connect with the Big Four and the G. & E. L. roads.

FOR SUMMER EATING.

Recipes That Will Prove Acceptable to Decatur Housewives.

The following recipe for aspicled salmon is contributed by Mrs. George S.
Dufour. It is a most delightful summer dish and can be served cold as well as warm:

Butter a baking dish, put in first a layer of cold mashed potatoes and alternate this with layers of salmon, seasoning each layer with butter, pepper and salt. Fit over the top of the dish slices of dry or toasted bread and pour over two thirds cup of boiling water. Bake for twenty minutes.

The following reasonable dish will be found fits if the recipes are closely followed.

Fried Cucumbers—Peel, cut in length one slices, rather thick and lay in cold water for one-half hour. Dry in a towel, sprinkle with pepper and salt, dip in butter, then roll in cracker crumbs and fry a delicate brown to butter.

Fried Ripe Tomatoes—Slice tomatoes and dip lightly in cracker dust. Fry in butter until a rich brown then remove to platter. Mince a gravy by adding milk to the butter in which the tomatoes have been fried, thicken with a very little flour and season with pepper and salt. Pour over tomatoes.

Tomatoes are delicious scalloped, using alternate layers of browned bread crumbs. Season well with butter and use no liquid.

Green Corn Pattice—Four large ears of green corn, 2 eggs, 1 cup milk, 1/2 cup flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder. Mix well together and fry in skillet by spoonfuls in boiling fat.

Green Corn Fritters—Take young, tender corn and cut from cob. To a quart of milk allow 2 1/2 cups of corn. Put the milk and corn into a double boiler and cook until perfectly tender. Then add butter dredged with flour and cook five minutes longer. Stir in beaten yolk of 2 eggs, let boil up and serve hot. If desired more butter and a tiny bit of sugar and nutmeg may be added.

A great many persons find it difficult to make the crisp, tender potato chips that are so much desired. The following recipe is excellent: Peel potato three hours before you are ready to use them and allow them to stand in cold water. When ready to use them, dry carefully, and slice them with sharp cutter on a dry towel spreading them out in a thin layer over the cloth. Roll the cloth together and press gently until all the moisture from the potato is absorbed. Shred chips together loosely and fry a few at a time in deep boiling lard. Take out and drain on cloth.

Mrs. C. H. Miller.

They're Odd.

On July 4 for instance, the country folk in blocks came to the city and wore out their feet and their patience tramping about on the brick pavements. While the country folk were trying to look pleasant in the city the city folk were in the woods digging bugs out of the pie, drinking warm and weak lemonade and making believe it was great fun to drive miles and miles through the hot sun to eat a picnic dinner on the grass. Wednesday night all hands solemnly vowed this experience of 1900 was all they wanted, and more, and that next year they'd know better. Perhaps they will know better but next year they'll do the same thing.

mition. A big cracker exploded while he had his face in close proximity, with the result that he was badly powder-burned.

Mrs. Robert Brown, living south of Mt.

Zion, was the victim of a sunstroke a few days ago, but yesterday she was reported to have shown considerable improvement.

Hit by a Car.

Jay Montgomery, the son of R. R.
Montgomery, while driving the family horses West Main, just west of Elwin on Thursday evening, was struck by a street car, thrown out of the buggy and mangled unrecognizably by the fall. The horse was frightened by the car and turned abruptly just across the track just as the car reached the rear of the buggy. The horse started to run but was caught a short distance from the scene of the accident. Jay was badly bruised but his injuries are not at all serious.

Died in Colorado.

Omar Thompson, formerly of Decatur, died at Olive Springs, Colorado, on Wednesday, July 4, aged 28 years. Thompson was a miller and during his residence and afterward at the Pratt mill. He was quite popular among his acquaintances. About a year ago he went to Colorado because of long trouble. The burial occurred in Colorado. Will Thompson, a miller at the Shallenberger plant, is a brother of the deceased.

the Herald, Decatur, Ill.There is no encouragement for the foot of the United States in the Philadelphia platform.The situation here is gradually becoming obsolete. The situation now busts the man.The corn crop of the United States was worth almost $5,000,000 more last year than in 1895.A republican victory in Nebraska this year would be a biting climax for the democratic campaign on false issues.Farmers who grew that should recollect that the first crop of the United States was worth 100 per cent more money last year than in 1895.Cotton growers realized $72,000,000 more money for their crop last year than they did in 1895. That was the result of opening the mills.Senator Morgan admits that some of the features of the Chicago platform are rather socialist. Senator Morgan is not a republican campaign orator.The Hon. John R. McLean has retired from Ohio politics and sailed for Europe.
Mr. McLean's experience with the Ohio voters was anything but encouraging.Kansas City is the hub of the great porkery belt. The Kansas and Missouri farmers never were so prosperous. It is not an ideal place for a calamity gathering.When people can afford to buy potatoes the farmer gets better prices for them.
That is the reason why last year's potato crop was worth $10,000,000 more than the potato crop of 1895.Adel M. Stevenson was once elected to congress. He was the nominee of the greenbackers. With a populist and a greenbacker for a democratic ticket therepublican campaign ought to be on flan-dry beds of ease.A discreditable document of Decatur incurably summed up the result of the Kansas City convention in one brief sentence. He said: "16 to 1 and Stevenson is all we get." Is not that enough? Do you want the whole popular party?The politics and office getting are the native air of Bloomington need no demonstration. Let facts be submitted to a candid world. Adel M. Stevenson is the democratic nominee for vice president.
James E. O'Donnell, the hustler of the Bullion, is on the democratic slate (check for secretary of state, John C. Gandy, for member of the legislature and now street railway manager, is the democratic nominee for congress against Paul Warren. This is a pretty fair showing for one party in one campaign. Vice president, member of congress and secretary of state are a pretty nappy string of beads for one city and 16, too, hopelessly republican. The consideration that neither of these estimable gentlemen has a possibility of election does not mitigate the fact that there is a very robust brand of political ozone in and around the fire city.
On the other hand the republicans of Bloomington have a few gentlemen willing to serve the people in an official capacity and who have capacity enough to lead with both feet on solid ground. Former Governor Pforz has the best effect under the government that one comes to any Illinoisan. To be a member of the interstate commerce commission is to hold a job which pays better and has less honor in it than that of United States congress.Bloomington furnishes a man for another good place. Mr. L. N. Phillips is a vigorous court reporter in a handsome salary and lucrative perquisites. Mr.
Phillips is an able man and entirely worthy of his hire. Col. Matt G. Smith has a place in the auditor's office at Burlington. There are others. Scratch a Bloomington man and you will find a man who has an office or wants one and is ready to get it before the sun goes down. Ohio men have only waiting until they encounter Bloomington and then comes the tug of war. Decatur looks on complacently at the mad scramble for office put up by Bloomington. Decatur is a business town.

AGED WOMAN DEAD.

Rheumatism of Heart Causes Death—Burial at Louisville.

PRINCE DAVID.

While the Bryanites proclaim their fear that we are drifting toward imperialism under the present administration it will be noted that one of the most enthusiastic of the others that went up in the Kansas City convention was when Prince David entered the hall on a delegate from Illinois. Prince David belongs to the royal house of Queen Lili. He is an American citizen without his consent. He is a democrat because Governor Cleveland hauled down the American flag in Honolulu and tried to destroy the republic set up by President Dole and his followers. He has no sympathy with the present McKinley administration because it put up the flag that was hauled down and accepted the proposition of the Dole government for annexation to the United States.
These acts make Prince David, who is against the government, popular with the Kansas City convention and he was cheered. But in addition to this the other delegates from Hawaii was also against the government and a follower of the unfortunate queen. The committee on resolutions in determining whether 16 to 1 should be left out of the new platform or reaffirmed as a plank in that platform, divided 24 to 26 in favor of putting it in the platform, the Hawaiian committlemen being one of the 26. Had he voted the other way the proposition would have been lost on the vote. So the following of Queen Lili, who are democrats for the reunions above given, was instrumental in helping to commit the party to free silver.
Under these conditions including the former with which the followers of Queen Lili were received in the Kansas City convention, make the democratic 16 to 1 Liberty and free government extremely ridiculous. It is needless to say the delegates from Hawaii who attended the republican convention at Philadelphia are in favor of free government and are loyal to the government of the United States and that they would not have been cheered at Kansas City.

THE RIVAL ISSUE.

After the deplorable failure of the democratic party, as it had not been for years under the Cleveland administration, to give the people a single thing it promised but, instead of its anti-expansion platform gave the entire country distress of the worst character, an element in the party, in 1890, to hide its failure, took up the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1.The campaign of 1890 exposed the nakedness of the 16 to 1 fallacy, and the party under the Bryanites and the silver forks went down to defeat. It was, therefore, impossible to make a campaign on silver this year, and that party cast out for supplemental issues. That has taken up what it calls imperialism as the "paramount" issue, and assumes to subordinate it to that.The humbuggers of the issue is apparently to every sensible man. Anti-imperialism is a mere protest to cover up the poverty of the party and keep it on its feet for another campaign.In 1890 the democratic party was sent in twain. Two platforms and two presidential tickets were put into the field. The one was headed by Douglas, the other by Breckenridge. Though divided their parties agreed upon one proposition, namely, the acquisition of Cuba without theconsent of the Cubans. Here are the two platforms:Breckenridge platform: That the democratic party is in favor of the acquisition of the island of Cuba on such terms as shall be honorable to ourselves and just to Spain, at the earliest practicable moment.Douglas platform: Resolved, That the democratic party are in favor of the acquisition of the island of Cuba on such terms as shall be honorable to ourselves and just to Spain.This, taken in connection with the action at Kansas City on anti-expansion show how bold the present bunching as to the attitude of the party is, and that the present flavor as to anti-expansion is a more expediency to avoid endangering any act of the present administration. The platform declarations quoted above do not consider the Cubans at all. They do not consider the "consent of the governed." There is no intimation that it would be a step to the direction of imperialism.Take another view as to this bunching as an issue. The silver republicans who defeated the election of Bryan and voted for him on account of his free silver nominations in 1896 are also anti-imperialists.
How does it happen that their views unanimously concur with the views of the democrats on this new issue? Simply for the reason that they are also dishonest as to the expansion issue and accept the democratic nakedness to aid in the defeat of McKinley.No issue was ever presented to the American people that was so clearly a platform made-to-order affair to throw dust in the eyes of the voters to hide the real two issues, free silver at 16 to 1, free trade and the office. The American people will not be deceived by their political conjurers. Before the campaign has far progressed the anti-imperialist issue will be abandoned and the tariff, under cover of the trust question, and free silver at 16 to 1 will be put to the front. There are now the democratic party before in at the present time, the others are indefinite that will not stand the test of argument and the logic of events. The real anti-expansionists prefer to vote for McKinley rather than Bryan. They are ready to accuse and give as a reason that whether honest or a trumper Bryan would be dangerous as a president.

Missed the Storm.

The big storm of Saturday night which from all appearances threatened the destruction of a large part of the out fields did little damage to them in the country northeast of Decatur. Many of the farmers had finished cutting their early crops. The cuts that were not yet cut were not blown down as badly as had been expected. Portions of some of the fields were down but the most of them are not so bad but what they can be cut from one way.The corn fields did not suffer even as much as the oats through the north part of Macon and in Piatt county. The corn was nodding rain although there had been no damage from lack of rain. The wind which accompanied the rain did not blow much of the corn down and what was damaged will be all right with a few days of hot sunshine. A gentleman who made a thirty-four mile drive from the north part of Piatt county to Decatur Sunday says that the corn is looking better than he ever saw it at this season of the year and that the wind of Saturday did no harm and that the rain was worth much more to the farmers than they will lose by the damage to their oats.But of all the places the Art Palaces take the lead. The fact that they are permanent buildings has made them better constructed and in themselves they are magnificent. The treasures they contain are without exception the finest that mortals have ever been able to get together. There again you will find the United States exhibit to be one of the best.As you know, the French in spirit are like the Americans. They cannot see any thing superior to their own country. They are proud of their history, entitled at home and most of them are well-to-do.
To them Paris is the world and whenever a Frenchman goes to Paris for a little journey he goes to spend his money. This is without doubt the city of cities, but they do things so different here that it is hard for a Yankee to understand or grasp the full beauty of the capital until he has been here for a few weeks.The most aggravating thing to an American is the lack of adequate transportation.
The trains look like toys. In Paris they have street cars, electric, steam, horse and compressed air, two story omnibuses, bents and underground railways, but the population is so congested just now that you sometimes have to wait for hours for your number to be called.
The only alternative presented to the impatient traveler is to hire a cab. Spacious of cars, and automobiles, they are so numerous at certain hours that it is taking your life in your hands to attempt to cross the street. On the boulevards there is plenty of room for pedestrians but walking takes time and if you attempt to cross it here it takes a good part of the day to get to the destination.One of the best features and by far the most pleasing, are the numerous parks, regular green oasis where during the afternoon, the mothers go with their children and sit down and do their sewing or purling while the babies play. They play the same games as our kids but one thing that surprises me is the respect they have for the plants, the flowers, and trees in the public gardens. The city spends a great deal of money to keep these places up and they are the only means of giving the children a good fresh breath in a city built like this. There is no lost space and a family must be wealthy to have a garden or lawn space in front of their house for a few weeks.

ROBERT HUGHES.

Robert, the little son of W. P. Hughes and wife of 853 West Peckard street, died at 10 o'clock Sunday morning of dysenteric, aged 3 years. The funeral will be held at 1 o'clock today at the residence and the burial will be at Long Creek.
Rev. Penhallegon will officiate at the funeral.

Murderous Blue Jays.

Warrington poultry breeders have declared a war of extermination on blue jays. This bird, formerly held in high esteem on account of its beautiful plumage and graceful manner, has come to be despised by poultry raisers. In our villages it has been discovered that they are nesting on the brains of young poultry, and they have been noted to gobble up a young chick, insert their straight bill into its skull, extract the brain, and leave the balance of the little chick to decay.The Times publisher was proud of a flock of nearly fifty beautiful young birds that were permitted to grow to nearly a pound in weight each. About a week ago they commenced to disappear at the rate of two to five a day, until the flock was reduced to eighteen. It has been established beyond reasonable doubt that the blue jays were murdering the turkeys, for a number was found with their skulls bared and the brain extracted.

Ed. Hornid:—The Paris exposition is now in full blast. The samples of the influence. The tribes parade in their national have been child's play compared with all the conglomeration of men coming from all four corners of the globe but the people of the 20th century do not throw up the job when they cannot make themselves understand. Money talks in France as much if not more than in the states and the sight of a gold Louis will open the commercial facilities of the worst trained mule. The United States flag is seen floating in all parts of the grounds, tan and stripes to every other flag excepting, of course, the ensigns of the French republic. Americans are here by the thousands. There are 10,000 continual visitors of the city and there must be at least 25,000 tourists. The Latin quarter has been a long time been captured by the art-hungry Anti-Suffrage. The English you enter a shop. Some stores have a list

CONTRACT LET.

Work on the Stone Building to Commence in Ten Days.

The contract for the new stone building to be built on the site of the old Central block, has been let to Harrison Baker. The new building will cost $15,000 and will be completed by November 1. It will be 24x30 feet in dimensions and three stories high. The Decatur Lumber company has the contract for the mill work.

The work of tearing down the old building will commence in ten days and the new one will be erected as rapidly as possible. It will be made in every respect.

In style it will be reduced, with 12 pillars, four on each side and two in the center, supporting the front. Red brick and red mortar will be used. In the construction of the building and the trimmings will be of white Bedford stone. The vestibule will be tiled and the entrance to the windows and doors of the front of the store room in front of wood will be of ornamental cast iron. The entire basement will be converted to the cure bin and the sidewalk will be paved with concrete illuminating tiles.

The second floor will be arranged for offices and the third for a club room for the Decatur Wheelmen's club who are already constructed. The floors throughout the building will be hard wood. The ceiling of the store room will be of ornamental steel and all the interior buildings will be of southern yellow pine.

There will be four bay windows on each side of the building, beginning at the second floor and a circle bay window at the south side. There will be a spiral staircase from each side of the building with a central landing in the second floor. The staircase will then continue on the west side to the third floor. The corner of the building will be finished with ornamental iron pieces.

STILL FOR M'KINLEY.

T. H. Stokes, of Lincoln, Sees No Reason for Returning to Democracy.

Among the out of town visitors to the reception Monday night and the convention today is Thomas H. Stokes, of Lincoln. For many years Mr. Stokes edited the Lincoln Times and was a foremost champion of democracy. During Cleveland's administration he edited the Lincoln postoffice. In 1892 Mr. Stokes could not avail 10 to 1 and Alton did. He voted for McKinley. He says that sugar coating the Bryan pill with such adulterated democratic sugar as Stevenson does not make the dose palatable. He will vote for McKinley and Roosevelt and thinks that most gold democrats will do likewise.

Somewhat Exaggerated.

A. O. Bolon is here from Joplin, Mo., to visit friends for a week. Mr. Bolon says that reports recently circulated concerning big strikes made by Decatur people have been somewhat exaggerated. It had been said that he had made a club strike. Mr. Bolon himself does not make any such claim. He says that he has a mind which promises well but that he would rather wait until it has been developed more before he makes any big claims.

It had also been reported here that B. T. Neustadt had struck a mine which would make him rich. Mr. Bolon says that Mr. Neustadt has a good little mine from which he is taking about 20 tons of ore per week and is working about eighteen men. It is a good little property but is nothing sensational.

Fine Cherries.

William Clark has received from his son, E. H. Clark, a box of cherries grown on his fruit farm at Kannan, Kansas. Although shipped a long distance the fruit reached here in splendid shape, being firm and solid as though just plucked from the tree. Mr. Clark went to Kannan a number of years ago and first tried farming but three droughts ruined the prospects of any kind of crops and he then turned his attention to fruit and has been very successful in that line. He has 800 cherry trees on his farm.

The Wife Was There.

Mrs. Charles Braden received a note yesterday stating that if she went to a certain spot on South Franklin street last night about 9 o'clock she would see her husband meet another woman. Mrs. Braden accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Daily went to the spot indicated and sure enough at the appointed time she saw a woman appear and a few moments later a man came up to the woman. As they stood talking together the man's wife and her mother suddenly appeared and gave them trouble. The fight was fast and furious while it lasted but that was but for a few seconds. The man did not wait to see it out but fled to the railroad and escaped. The woman was not so fortunate, however, and lost a hand and a good part of her clothing in the tussle. Mrs. Braden picked up the hat of the rival which had fallen to the ground in the fight and carried it home as a trophy of the battle. She said she was confident that the man with the woman was her husband but in the dark could not see him very well.

Fourth of July Brings Grief.

Hedding, Mo., July 8.—For four years in succession on July 3 Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hedding, who live northeast of Otterville, Cooper county, have lost a child by death. This year the victim was a year old son. Less than five minutes before he died he appeared perfectly well. Then his throat began to swell, causing strangulation, and he choked to death. On four successive Independence days the family had a burial instead of a celebration.

A Platt Jag.

J. A. Brubaker of Monticello cannot stand the strength of Decatur whiskey and fell by the wayside while in the city. He gave a sum of $6.50 to Justice Hardy to secure the payment of a little fine which he promised to pay on his next visit to the city.

Overland Drive.

Ex-Alterman J. W. Carter, bookkeeper at the new coal shaft, left with his family yesterday for an overland drive to Lexington where they expect to visit for several days.

Not So Bad.

Some of the farmers and grain men say that the damage to the oats by reason of lodging during the storm Saturday night is not as bad as first supposed. The oats may be machine cut one way.

A LONG CHASE.

After An Embuzzier Wanted at Tuscola Is Made by Sheriff Moon.

Sheriff C. A. Moon of Douglas county was in the city last night on route to his home having in custody a prisoner by the name of Frank Dittmire who was under indictment in that county for grand larceny and arson. The story of the capture of Dittmire reads like a novel as he has been wanted at Tuscola for the past three months and during all that time the sheriff has been on the lookout for him but without success until several weeks ago when he got a tip that the man he was looking for was located on a ranch in the north part of Idaho.

Thinking that he was at last on the right trail he started for Boise City, Idaho where his reputation as a prisoner was honored. Dittmire was on a ranch 20 miles from Lewisburg and in order to get there Sheriff Moon had to go up into Oregon and then take a boat down the river to the vicinity of the ranch where Dittmire was supposed to be but enough he found him there operating a small ranch.

He was immediately placed under arrest and with his feet in irons on the trip back to Lincoln was Logistic. The sheriff had traveled just 200 miles in pursuit of the man having left home a week ago last Tuesday. All of that time was spent on the road and the sheriff was pretty tired when he got into this city last night at 10:30 o'clock. He had to wait at the depot until 11:30 for the L. D. W. for the road. By the time he reached home he will have traveled over 300 miles after his prisoner.

Dittmire is recognized as a bad man in Douglas county and the sheriff kept him in prison determined to allow him no chance to escape after making such a long trip to get him in on him.

Dittmire is wanted at Tuscola for kidnapping from J. W. Phillips of that town. Phillips is the local representative of the M. G. Lucy & Co. poultry dealers and Dittmire had been in the employ of Phillips and it seems not away with considerable of the money of the firm. Dittmire talked with a reporter at the depot last night. He is a smooth talker and did not seem to be in the least concerned about his fate but all the time he kept a keen lookout on all that transpired and seemed to be more uneasy than he wished to let on. He said that he was confident he would regain his liberty when he had a chance to explain the situation. The sheriff remarked however that Dittmire would have more than one case to stand trial for after he got back as he was a bad man.

NEWS NOTES FROM ILLINOIS TOWNS

Chicago, July 9.—The twenty-fourth annual meeting of the Illinois State Bar association will be held at the Chicago Beach hotel next Thursday and Friday, July 12 and 13. At the last session of the general assembly a resolution was passed appointing a commission to revise the laws of Illinois in relation to practice and procedure. Judge William J. Gross of Springfield, will present the report concerning the work of the commission. The proposed changes are expected to cover every department of the law and will affect to some extent the daily work of every practicing lawyer, and as the subjects presented may be regarded as of great practical importance to the profession at large.

Gen. Benson Wood, of Fillmore, one of the trustees of the old soldiers' Orphans' home at Normal, is the president of the association and will open the session with the president's annual address.

An especial effort is to be made before the meeting to secure the attendance, as far as possible, of those of the association whose membership has existed continuously since 1877—the year when the State Bar Association was organized. The first meetings of the association will be the subject of several brief addresses of an instructive as well as a reminiscing character. The meeting of the association will close with a reception and banquet at the Chicago Beach hotel. After the banquet there will be a dance.

MAY SQUARE HIMSELF.

Swindling Real Estate Agent at Lincoln Has a Chance.

Lincoln, July 9.—The sentence of W. S. Mitchell of Harrisburg, convicted of defrauding H. E. Coffman out of a hotel at Erie by trifling him worthless land in Saline county, providing that he pay a fine of $1000 to go to jail for six months and restore as far as possible the property, may be modified to the extent of permitting him to pay a fine of $300. The bond declared forfeited will not be可valuable when the convicted man comes to Lincoln with a physician's certificate showing inability to march here Friday, July 6. The money, constituting the bond, belongs to Mitchell's sister, and as Mitchell has not a dollar in sight, there is no likelihood of the county ever deferring a dollar if he comes here and presents himself to the sheriff. The question is will it be better to modify the sentence by accepting the $300 fine and suspending imprisonment, or take nothing and board and shelter Mitchell a whole year. Mitchell will be here next Tuesday to settle or go to jail.

Middleton Land Sold.

Lincoln, July 9.—Quite a large number of Middleton people were in the city Saturday afternoon and attended the sale of property by virtue of a decree of partition by Judge Myers in a suit entitled Walter H. Rayburn vs. Watson B. Rayburn, No. 18, 2, 3, 7 and 8, block 60, and lots 1, 2, 3, block 6, in Middleton. Garret Rayburn was the purchaser paying $700. The appraised valuation was $211.

Eighty-nine acres in section 18, township 19, north range 4, was sold to L. J. Joyer for $4,225. The land consists of forty, thirty-seven and 12-acre tracts.

Plenty of Wheat.

Mason City, July 9.—There were fully 1000 acres of flat wheat in the immediate vicinity. Around Sun Jose was just about the same amount. All of this is now harvested, and some of it is threshed. It is found that the average yield is fully 30 bushels to the acre. Some fields that were severely injured by the Hessian fly will not yield more than 10 bushels, while others will yield from 30 to 40 bushels to the acre.

Baby Drowned.

Fairbury, July 9.—The 16-month-old daughter of Charles Faint, who lives six miles north, wandered from home late yesterday. The entire neighborhood and many from this city hunted a night in the fields. Her body was discovered in the Vermillion river a mile from Faint's home this afternoon. The child had evidently wandered to the stream and fallen in and was drowned.

Heavy Blow at Effingham.

Effingham, June 9.—A storm here last night struck the Illinois college of photography buildings, worth $70,000, demolishing the northwest corner of the main building. The students who were in attendance from all over the world will be delayed, but temporarily as the building will be at once rebuilt.

Electrical Storm.

West Salem, Ill., July 9.—During a severe electrical storm last night the large barn of William Holzen, living four miles northeast of Lancaster, was struck by lightning and consumed, together with all its contents, including seven head of horses and a span of valuable mules. Loss, $2000, no lives lost.

PRairie Home.

Until Saturday afternoon the corn prospect never was better. Most of the crop was just ready to turn out. The stalks were just forming, and a terrible wind storm with rain came and left the corn that on the ground and in many instances the stalks were broken off mauling the damage very heavy. A strip northwest of Prairie Home doesn't look like it would make much of a crop. The stalks are all split to pieces and the plants are not looking better now.

R. H. Holmgren says we have sixteen threshing machine rigs in threshing distance of this farm.

The farmers north of LaGrange say that the weight is in the right place, and when snowed in they are all saying after using their new winter oil sprayer they are not able to stock wheat until now they want some bonhams to invent a shocking machine. Wm. Shultz says when he gets a threshing attachment he wants one with a bunch counter attachment.

Carrie Taggart will perhaps teach school during camping time.
Several men have sold their corn at 10 cents per bushel and will deliver next month. Many fields of oats will have to be cut one way to save the crop.

Green consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hugley of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electro Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured" in five days.
